Islamic law Dr Hamdi returns the Koran to Turkish Melicul (Arabic: القرآن) or Quran is the holy book of the Islamic religion. The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) retreated to a cave on Mount Hira near Mecca for a while before he received prophetic duty, busy thinking about the greatness of Allah. On Monday night during Ramadan in 610, he was drawn to the cave in Hira again, turning to Allah with his heart and all his presence. Then the eldest of the angels, Yabrael (i.e.), came to our prophet at the command of Allah and said, Read it and repeat it three times. When our beloved Prophet said, What should I read? So came the first revelation, and the Holy Qur'an began to become a Citis. The Qur'an was sent to the Prophet by an angel named Gabriel. When the first revelation came, the Prophet (a.d.) was 40 years old. Revelation: Information that is communicated directly by Allah or the prophets through the Messenger and which expresses certainty. There are varieties of revelation. God has made his word to his messengers in one of these ways of revelation. One of these ways is for Almighty Allah to make his word to the prophets through an angel. And the angel who made the Messenger say the word of Allah. This is what you do. Sometimes he would come in his own image. Sometimes they came in the form of a human being, and those who were there could see and hear his voice. Sometimes the angel announces the revelation to the Prophet, but he is invisible. When the Koran began to descend, the prophetic duty of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) began. The Qur'an was completed in 23 years, sometimes in verses and sometimes in sura. It's a great book. - We took it off. He's very blessed. (There are many benefits and blessings.) So follow these commandments and fear God, to be merciful. (E'iam, 6/155) About the Holy Prophet (P KERIM) as he came to us without any change. It will remain intact until the apocalypse. Some of the other writings have been completely lost, others have been corrupted by many changes, and none have been preserved as sent by God and changed by men. Almighty Allah has ensured that he will defend the Koran: We have lowered the Koran and will protect it. (Hij 9) Allah has protected the Holy Qur'an to this day and will keep it to the day. The Qur'an will make people come unto the Truth, and they will not be able to see. it separates the law from the law and the illegal and in the conditions of religion... (Bakka bakka baccas, 2/185) The Qur'an is fragmented into verses and surah according to time and events, not in bulk. This made it easy to remember and understand. The Holy Qur'an is the last divine book. After that, there will be no more books. The provisions of the Koran will be valid until Judgment Day and will not change. Previous books were sent for a certain period of time. The Holy Qur'an is a book that is sent to all human beings. It is full of truth and wisdom to meet the needs of every century. The Holy Qur'an has recited, that is, repealed, and collected the provisions of all divine books.
